VACANCY FOR ASSISTANT ELECTRICAL HEALTH TECHNICIAN (AEHT) OFFICER

Bulletin A&S 09/26 November 2026

The Gibraltar Health Authority invites applications for the post of Assistant Electronic Health Technician (AEHT) Officer from members of the public who hold the right of abode in Gibraltar (i.e. in possession of a Gibraltar red ID card).

An exciting opportunity has arisen for motivated and focused individuals to join the Gibraltar Health Authority. The ideal candidate will, be in possession of an IT Related degree or equivalent qualification. The post-holder will be responsible for handling the GHA ticket system and support helpline. They will also assist in the installation, maintenance, and management of the Gibraltar Health Authority's systems. A valid driving license in Category B is essential. Candidates must also meet the requirements outlined in the Job and Person Specification.

Applicants must be in possession of:

- Five GCSE (or GCE 'O' Level) passes at A, B or C grade, or CSE grade 1, two of which must be in English Language and Mathematics or an equivalent or higher qualification.

- A degree or equivalent qualification used in lieu of English and/or Mathematics at GCSE must demonstrably be shown to contain enough content in this respect in order to qualify.

Experience in any of the below would be an advantage:

Networking: Familiar with installing network cabling and able to fault find connectivity issues with end devices.

Server Infrastructure: Physical and Virtual environments. MS Active Directory and related services, DNS, DHCP, File Services (Group & User NTFS permissions), Print Services, Group Policies.

Desktop Infrastructure: Desktop Management, Software Support and Software Deployment Tools.

Cloud Technologies: Microsoft 365+/Azure, Sophos Product Suite.

The post is permanent, subject to a successful completion of a 12-month probationary period, and carries the following salary scale:

£37,942, £38,380, £42,210, £43,850, £44,703, £45,569, £46,456 & £49,256 per annum.

Candidates must meet the essential requirements stated in the Job and Person Specification. Further particulars of the post may be obtained from Mr Aaron Asquez via email: aaron.asquez@gha.gi

Application forms, two copies of identification, qualifications, and two references must be submitted to adminsupportHR@gha.gi no later than Friday 20th November 2026. In addition, Royal Gibraltar Police (RGP) vetting forms and proof of address must also be provided.
For guidance on the RGP's requirements for acceptable documentation, please refer to Section 4 – Proof of Identity within the vetting form.